Chamber Event Descriptions

Legislative Luncheon

Join us for an informative session with our district legislators at the Murray State College Aggie Dining Room. This event is free to the public with lunch available through the MSC cafeteria.

Annual Chamber Banquet

The Chamber invites members of the community and membership to join us for an evening that includes a meal, silent and live auctions, and presentation of Small, Large and New Business of the Year and Citizen and Volunteer of the Year awards.

Independence Day Celebration

Celebrate with us as we recognize 242 years of American Independence! Fireworks, vendors, concessions, games and more at the Tishomingo High School football field.

Fall Festival

Paint your favorite pumpkin, grab your family and friends and enjoy music, games, and food right here in Tishomingo. This inaugural event is sure to get you in the mood for pumpkin everything!

Breakfast with Santa & the Johnston County Christmas Parade

Santa is coming to town the first Saturday in December and wants to have breakfast with you! Pancakes, sausage, fruit and juices will be available as well as an ornament craft table and great photo ops. Join us to usher in the holiday season and start getting your Christmas parade float ready!
