What does an Ambassador do?

Being an Ambassador allows for professional growth. You will personally network with Johnston County Chamber of Commerce members and verbally promote their goods and services to anyone seeking a referral. Ambassadors will continually provide leads and information about new businesses in the community while generating trust and confidence in the Chamber, promoting high standards of ethical behavior and integrity.

You will:

- Attend Ambassador Committee meetings
- Attend ribbon cuttings, welcoming new businesses to the area
- Attend mixers, luncheons, and other events hosted by the Chamber
- Assist with the Annual Chamber Banquet
- Participate in community events held by organizations which the Chamber supports (INCA, Tishomingo Development Team, Lion's Club, etc.)
- Promote goodwill and communicate the mission of the Chamber to new and existing members
- Encourage all members to participate in Chamber functions
- Be a member of the Chamber of Commerce

Ambassador: A reflection of you

As a Chamber of Commerce Ambassador, you are a front-line representative for the Chamber and its approximately 200 members at public and Chamber-sponsored events and activities. You will assist in promotion, connect with local professionals, create business contacts and clients, and have an enhanced knowledge of happenings around the County.

As an Ambassador, your dedication, time and efforts are appreciated and highly valued by the Board of Directors and Chamber Staff.

Do you have what it takes?
